Time allowed for this Assignment: 2 in class lessons and take home

Weighting: 10%

Warning: Sharing the same answers with other students will be penalised. All your answers should be strictly your own. You can research together but construct your own answers.

Structure of this paper

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Number of questions available</th>
<th>Number of questions to be answered</th>
<th>Marks available</th>
<th>TOTAL</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Section One: Document analysis</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>11</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Section Two: Extended Answer</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>10</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TOTAL MARKS</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>/21</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Dedicated to Tiwi culture

The West Australian Newspaper 26 Jan 2017
By Andrew Tillett, Canberra

For more than 60 years, Sister Anne Gardiner has dedicated herself to the Tiwi people on Bathurst Island. Aged just 22 when she made the move as a member of the Daughters of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, Sister Anne’s lifetime of work, which continues at the ripe old age of 85, made her a well-deserved and popular choice for Senior Australian of the Year.

Sister Anne has been praised for her devotion to enriching community, enhancing opportunity and supporting the Tiwi culture through her work as principal of the local school and community groups.

One of her most important tasks has been documenting and preserving the Tiwi language for future generations.

Sister Anne is also credited with founding an op shop, cafe and museum that financially benefits the locals. Accepting the award, she called on policymakers to do more to preserve indigenous culture.

“It has been my joy to witness and experience Tiwi people manage organisations, conduct schools and health clinics, train others in a range of areas and administer businesses,” Sister Anne said.

“They have done this by being confident in who they are, as their language and culture remains strong. They have done it, too, while having to confront substance abuse, suicide, domestic violence and other signs of a community in stress.

“Sadly, some of the cultural understandings and their incorporation into policies which enable communities such as the Tiwi to maintain and develop their language and cultural strength, while simultaneously engaging with the wider world, are not in place in Australia. My hope is that this will be redressed in my lifetime. It is of paramount importance that those responsible for policy consult with the relevant persons and groups among our First People, so that policies may recognise and appropriately include their language and cultures, particularly in leadership, education and employment.”

Source: Map of the Tiwi Islands and its proximity to Australia
Section One: Source Analysis

This section has 4 questions. Answer ALL questions. Write your answers in the space provided.

1. List three vows that all religious must take as part of their vocation. (3 marks) a)______________________________________________________________ b)______________________________________________________________ c)______________________________________________________________

2. With reference to the source, explain Sister Anne’s work as a principal of the local school. (3 marks)

   ______________________________________________________________

   ______________________________________________________________

   ______________________________________________________________

   ______________________________________________________________

   ______________________________________________________________

   ______________________________________________________________

3. Outline Sister Anne’s achievements and give evidence from the source. (3 Marks)

   ______________________________________________________________

   ______________________________________________________________

   ______________________________________________________________

4. Explain Sister Anne’s desire for the Tiwi people. (2 marks)

   ______________________________________________________________

   ______________________________________________________________

   ______________________________________________________________
Section Two: Extended Answer (10 marks)

a. Choose one religious person listed below:
   - Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati
   - Danusia Kaska
   - Catherine McAuley

b. Discuss how this religious person has found meaning and purpose through Christian vocation. Your answer needs to include some background information about their life and how this person ‘put others first as Jesus did’ (CFM. Chapter 3.1:3 page 1).

Research: Use the ‘Come Follow Me’ textbook and Mercy College McAuley Library libguide

https://mercy-wa.libguides.com/c.php?g=810120

Your response must include:

- What is this person’s Christian Vocation?
- Information about their life and how this contributed to their vocation.
- What meaning and purpose did they discover through their vocation?
- What is meant by ‘put others first as Jesus did’? (Use textbook for this)
- Explain how this person ‘put others first as Jesus did’.

_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________